
Testing on live Application

SESSION-1

- 1. Open the Flipkart website in your browser and test the main navigation bar — click each menu item (like Electronics, Fashion, Home, etc.) and verify that the URL changes correctly and the expected content loads.

ANS: open the flipkart website

- Check the flipkart navigation bar
- Click on the Electronics page – check if the Electronics page opens and verify that the URL changes.
- Click on the fashion page - check if the Fashion page opens and verify that the URL changes.
- Click on the home page – check if the home page opens and verify that the URL changes.
- Click on the mobiles page – check if the mobile page opens and verify that the URL changes.
- Click on the Beauty page – check if the mobile page opens and verify that the URL changes.
- Click on each page – check if each pages opens and verify that the URL changes.

- 2. Pick any sign-up or login form from a popular web app you use (like Zomato, Instagram, or Paytm) and test its field validation by entering invalid email addresses, leaving required fields blank, and submitting — note the error messages shown for each case.

ANS: Test the Zomato login page validation:

- Open the Zomato login page
- Enter ABC in the Email field - "Invalid Email ID" error message displayed.
- When the email id field is left blank - "Invalid Email ID" error message displayed.
- When the phone number field is left blank - "Invalid phone number" error message displayed.
- When entering more than 10 numbers in the phone number field - "Invalid phone number" error message displayed.

Test the Instagram login page validation:

- Open the Instagram login page
- Enter “daftly” ‘pub” in the email field – “The login information you entered is incorrect” error message displayed.
- Blank Email Field – “Email ID is” required message displayed.
- Blank Password Field – “Password” required message displayed.
- Both Fields Blank – Required field messages displayed.

Test the Paytm login page validation:

- Open the Paytm login page
- Invalid Mobile Number - "Please enter a valid mobile number" message displayed.
- Blank Mobile Number Field - "Please enter mobile number" message displayed.
- Less Than 10 Digits Mobile Number - "Enter a valid mobile number" message displayed.
- Special Characters in Mobile Number - Validation error message displayed.

3. Install the Notepad++ desktop application on your Windows machine, then test if the installer correctly creates a Start Menu shortcut and check if you can save a text file to your Documents folder.

ANS: steps

- Download and install Notepad ++ on windows. – Notepad++ should be installed successfully.
- Open the Start Menu and search for Notepad++. – Notepad++ should appear in the Start Menu.
- Verify that the Notepad++ shortcut is created. – Notepad++ shortcut should be available.
- Open Notepad ++. – Notepad++ should be open successfully.
- Type some text (e.g. "Hello Testing"). – Text should be entered successfully.
- Click file → Save As. - Save As window should open.
- Select the Documents folder. – Documents folder should be selected.
- Save the file. - File should be saved successfully in the Documents folder.

4. Download and install the 'Spotify Lite' APK on an Android emulator (like Blue Stacks or Android Studio emulator), then verify that the app launches, the login screen appears, and the UI elements (logo, fields, buttons) are properly displayed on your mobile screen.

Hint: If you don't have a real device, use any free Android emulator and a safe APK download source.

ANS: Steps

- Download the Spotify Lite APK – APK file should download successfully.
- Install Spotify Lite on the Android Emulator – App should install successfully without errors.
- Launch the Spotify Lite app – App should open Successfully.
- Verify the Login Screen Appears – Login screen should be displayed.
- Check the Spotify logo on the screen – Spotify logo should be visible properly.
- Check the username/email field. – username/email field should be displayed correctly.
- Check the password field – Password field should be displayed correctly.
- Check the Login button – login button should be visible and clickable.
- Verify all UI element on the screen – All UI element should be properly aligned and displayed.

5. Test the window handling of the Windows Calculator app by opening multiple instances (if possible), switching between them, and checking if calculations in one window affect the others.

ANS: Steps

- Open the Windows Calculator Application – Calculator should open successfully.
- Open another Windows Calculator Windows – Second Calculator window should open successfully.
- In Calculator Window 1, perform $10 + 10 = 20$ – Result should display as 20.
- In Calculator Window 2, perform $50 + 50 = 100$ - Result should display as 100.
- Switch form Window 1 to Window 2 – Window 2 should retain its calculation result.
- Switch form Window 2 to Window 1 – Window 1 should retain its calculation result.
- Verify calculations is both Windows – Calculations should remain separate and independent.
- Check whether one window Affect the other – One window should not affect the calculations of the other window.